The Extraordinary Documentary Film:

WITH ONE HAND TIED

This story illuminates how during WW II impoverished and starving Tuscans in Italy were liberated by African American soldiers against all odds. This film has been lauded by many and will fill you in on how Negro soldiers, in spite of a segregated Army, fought bravely and then returned to Jim Crow America.

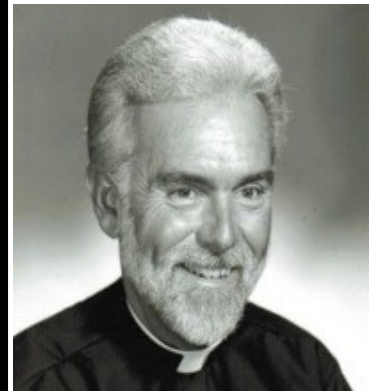

IVAN HUSTON, retired CEO of Golden State Insurance, has served as a member of the Board of Regents of Loyola Marymount University, an active member of St. Jerome, and Trustee of the Catholic University of American. He is the author of BLACK WARRIORS, The Buffalo Soldiers of World War II. He will introduce the film and participate in the Q&A session following the film.

A Documentary Feature by Leila Sansour:

OPEN BETHLEHEM

A Big Film about a Small Town which brings attention to the plight of the little City of Bethlehem and the suffering of Christian people at the birth place of Our Lord. The Christian population in this part of the world has dwindled and they face incredible pressure from all sides.

Rt. Rev. Alexei Smith, Director Ecumenical & Interreligious Affairs for The Archdiocese of Los Angeles, was awarded the prestigious Religious Leadership Award of the Valley interfaith Council and in 2011 was elected President of the Southern California Ecumenical Council, the first Catholic to hold that position. He will introduce the film and participate in the Q&A session.
